We all love a good story.

A good story can inspire us to reach beyond the ordinary. A good story can transport us to any place, at any time. A good story can teach us, can make us laugh, can make us cry, can connect us to our common humanity. Above all, a good story can leave us changed slightly, with a deeper understanding of ourselves and those around us.

Storytelling can take many forms. Live theatre is an outgrowth of the earliest oral form, and we are thrilled to continue this tradition by bringing you a season with a wide range of plays and musicals. In addition, we are introducing the "Page to Stage" program to give exposure to new playwrights, as well as audience engagement projects and additional concerts and events.

Our Education Department continues to grow and thrive. This season we are formally adding Production Workshops to our already flourishing group and private instruction programs. We continue to offer our Summer Camp Experience for the 11th consecutive year and we are adding a Youth Musical in August for all to enjoy.

Steel River Playhouse is your community's theater, and there is truly something here for everyone. Join us and discover a story that touches you, and add to the story we are writing together.

After all, we all love a good story.
